How to get the most from this Relationship Report

The success of any relationship is never determined by their Birth Card(s) or the connections alone. Though some cards have it easier than others, ultimately it is each individual who holds the responsibility for the success or failure of their relationships. This report will act as a guide to help both parties achieve that success is possible. Along these lines, pay special attention to the affirmations listed for each connection in this report.

Welcome to System 52 Business Associates compatibility report. The purpose of this report is to reveal as much information about these two people as possible. It is our hope that this report will enlighten both people a little, and maybe even help them to make more powerful and happy choices in the areas of work and companionship. This report will explain many things about these two, and how the two of them interact. However, in no way is this meant to tell them whether or not they will be successful together. That success is always in the hands of each of them. No matter what connections they share, this relationship can be successful if both partners want it and are willing to commit to making that happen. However, this report will help them discover just how easy or challenging that may be for them.

This report consists of two separate parts. The first part includes the descriptions of each person's Birth Cards, Planetary Ruling Cards, and Personality Cards if you they have been chosen. This section will reveal they personality traits, values, and other factors that make each of these two who they are. One can get a basic feeling for each person in this section and perhaps get a new perspective on what makes them tick.

Once this report has explained something about each of the two separately, it will explain how the two of them connect energetically. In the second part will be a list of the 'connections' they share with each other that explain what each of them experiences when they are together. This is where the descriptions of the areas that are easy or challenging for the two of them will be detailed. These connections explain how this business-oriented relationship will be experienced by both of the parties involved. Some connections are good for working together, others for friendship and harmony, and others for a teacher/student relationship.

This report was created with the intention of opening up doors of understanding and awareness. May this report enlighten both parties to have a more successful union in their work efforts.

All about John`s Birth Card

Our Birth Card is the most important symbol of who an individual is in this lifetime. It is the card that lies at the core of our being, and through which we have the greatest gifts to share with those around us. It is also called the Sun Card and the Soul Card. For most people, the Birth Card is the purpose behind whatever work they are doing. It usually is the gift that they share with the world through their work, and thus it is very important to gain an understanding of that card for each person.

The King of Clubs Person

The King of Clubs is the Master of Distinction. People of this card pay attention to details and make their case based upon them. They do not miss anything. They are also committed to the truth. Most of them will never compromise their truth just to please others or to get through the situation more easily. However, they are gifted with great communication skills so they can say what needs to be said in a way that does not foster undue resentment from others.

They can be found in all types of professions, usually in positions of responsibility, always respected in whatever capacity they are engaged. Among their numbers are some of the most successful artists, statesmen and musicians in the world. One of their greatest assets is the ability to make fine distinctions and a witty and personable nature that usually makes them popular and well liked.

They do well in partnerships at work and many King of Clubs are destined to be in a successful partnership, especially after the age of 39. They value the companionship of others and help them feel appreciated.

Some of the King of Clubs Issues Concerning Relationships

The King of Clubs value their relationships on all levels. They are very friendly and know how to get along, even with those that they disagree with. When pressed to the wall, they will stand for what they believe in. But they never force their philosophies upon others.

All about John`s Planetary Ruling Card

The Planetary Ruling Card acts like a second Birth Card to give a new slant on the personality and character traits of each individual. It is very important in terms of working relationships since it represents the part of each person that they identify with the most. For each person, this is the card they act out of and through, so it becomes very important in knowing the true nature of these two.

The Four of Hearts Person

This is basically a people-person, actually a family person. They work and work successfully but it is the people in their lives that matter most. Though it may not be their immediate family, the Four of Hearts always keeps a core group around them, which represents a family to them, one that provides friendship and emotional security. Often, this family is created at work and they will go to great lengths to maintain this group, which is so important to them.

There is a lot of ambition and power in this card. On one hand they are very lovable and caring. On the other they have a powerful will and will use that power to maintain things the way they see fit. They are good with people for sure. But if they feel threatened, they can be formidable opponents.

Once in an occupation that pleases them they will work hard and keep it going to derive the maximum benefits from it. Though they can be found in many different occupations, they are basically there for the interaction in relationships. They are good with money but not necessarily motivated by it.

Many will find high recognition in their life but this usually comes in the later years.

They do have a delicate health constitution and cannot abuse their bodies in any way without reprimand. Employers should be aware of the health consideration. It is a possible reason for lost days, much more than other cards in the deck. Drinking or other addictions can be a problem as well.

Some of the Four of Hearts Issues Concerning Relationships

The Four of Hearts usually gets along well with everyone. They enjoy having friends at work and sometimes will partner up romantically with business partners or fellow workers. They are very friendly, but powerful as was mentioned earlier.

All about Paul's Birth Card

Our Birth Card is the most important symbol of who an individual is in this lifetime. It is the card that lies at the core of our being, and through which we have the greatest gifts to share with those around us. It is also called the Sun Card and the Soul Card. For most people, the Birth Card is the purpose behind whatever work they are doing. It usually is the gift that they share with the world through their work, and thus it is very important to gain an understanding of that card for each person.

The Queen of Clubs Person

All Queens are service oriented and receptive in nature. The mental nature of clubs inclines the Queen of Clubs to deal in the publishing trade, secretarial work, or among the more aware ones, psychic work. Being Queens, they are always aware of their place in the royal court and resist anyone trying to mold them in any way. Their mental gifts are abundant and whether or not they realize it, they are always receiving knowledge from the 'other side'. These people have incredible organizational minds but live life at such a high pitch that they are often stressed out or overdoing it.

Queen of Clubs have an innate ability to do business. And when they get involved in business, they usually like it to be of a large scope. Many Queen of Clubs end up becoming very wealthy at some point in their life, usually due to a successful business or enterprise that they create or get involved in. They really are good with business and add a lot to any group or organization. Combined with their mothering nature, they can help fellow employees feel comfortable and taken care of.

However, they are also very high-strung and impatient. And when they get out of sorts they can be somewhat short and ruthless with people. They have strong egos and demand that those around them pay them their due.

The Queen of Clubs often has two jobs and does best where there is some creative expression and freedom of movement. They are proud and do their jobs well.

Some of the Queen of Clubs Issues Concerning Relationships

The Queen of Clubs are generally sweet and agreeable, with the exception mentioned above. They really do not have much patience for people who are lazy, slow, or who lack intelligence.

All about Paul`s Planetary Ruling Card

The Planetary Ruling Card acts like a second Birth Card to give a new slant on the personality and character traits of each individual. It is very important in terms of working relationships since it represents the part of each person that they identify with the most. For each person, this is the card they act out of and through, so it becomes very important in knowing the true nature of these two.

The Ten of Spades Person

The Ten of Spades is a natural career person. Everything they do is done with intensity, passion and a desire to achieve and accomplish. They can even become workaholics and allow their work or careers to become out of balance with the rest of their lives. However, these traits often come in cycles interrupted by cycles of devotion to the family and marriage. One of their life challenges is to keep the balance between these two opposite directions in life.

They can work in such a concentrated manner that they can accomplish quite a bit more than most people. They are like a huge rocket with powerful boosters. Just make sure that rocket is pointed in the right direction before it takes off. Once ignited, it cannot be extinguished until it has run its course. This person can fit into an organization or be the head of a company. They need goals that are interesting in terms of what can be accomplished. They are less influenced by money than just the sheer accomplishment of goals. But they also thrive on recognition. This is probably the most ambitious card in the deck.

Some of the Ten of Spades Issues Concerning Relationships

Those of this card usually get along famously with everyone around them. They have the kind of intellect that allows them to relate to most everybody on their level. So, others feel comfortable around them. These good people skills are an important part of who they are. They are people oriented more than other Tens and Aces. But, it should be kept in mind that their work is really their first love. Even their relationships will play second fiddle to that.

All about the Card Connections you share

Look at each connection as a link that connects each person to some part of themselves that they want to look at, develop or explore in some way. The partners in this relationship are mirrors to each other and the connections describe what they see.

This report uses the most advanced techniques available to give some real insight into the inner workings of this association. Using the ancient system, now known as the Book of Destiny, it determines the energy 'connections' that reflect exactly how these two people interact. These connections are essentially described as planetary energies, for example Mars or Venus. Some connections are harmonious, while others create certain kinds of friction or stress between you. All of the connections between these two serve an important purpose and contribute to the experience that they share. Keep in mind that most connections have a higher expression and a lower one. The affirmations given for each connection indicate how to access the highest expression of it.

The connections are listed in the order of their importance. The first connection is the most important and the second is the next important, etc. But even the last connection in this relationship probably manifests itself at times. Therefore, regard all of them as having some important information for you.

One thing to pay attention to is whether or not the two people in this association have more than one of a certain kind of connection between them. For example, they may have a total of two or three Mars connections between them. When this is the case, it is wise to study these connections carefully, realizing that this probably indicates some of the most important reasons that these two ended up together in whatever capacity they are. It will also indicate a predominant pattern of interaction which could be the real meat of the relationship.

Finally, it should be stated here that there are no bad connections. If we are in a relationship with someone, regardless of the reasons, there are important reasons for this. The descriptions of the connections in this report can help you understand these two have made the choice to be together, which can in turn help them understand their individual personalities and needs better. Of course, some connections indicate stress and challenge, but this is because we often use relationships as the vehicle through which we resolve our own inner conflicts. If the desire to work together is there, there are many good things for each of the two to gain from being together.

The First Connection Between You

John

Paul

The first connection is always considered the most important of all and, in most cases, will represent the dominant pattern that exists in this relationship. Study the connection described below carefully, as it may reveal some hidden opportunities for this relationship.

Paul is the Moon Card to John

Location: Spiritual Spread

Of all the connections that exist among the cards in the deck, the Moon connection is probably the single most powerful one when it comes to enhancing compatibility and creating a great association. When someone is our Moon card, we feel very close and comfortable with them. Both parties enjoy communications with each other on a high level. When this connection is found in the Spiritual Spread, we feel even closer, and at the same time we sense a familiarity that goes beyond normal descriptions. It is as though we knew this person, even before we met. People who have this connection often experience instant recognition of each other. This connection provides a foundation upon which any sort of successful relationship or partnership can be developed. It can create a working situation where things go so smoothly and easily that it seems amazing.

However, this connection has some interesting aspects, ones that must be understood if Paul and John are to make the best of it. It also implies specific relationship roles for both of them, roles that cannot be changed unless there is another Moon connection between them that is the opposite direction of this one.

In this relationship, Paul is a Moon Card influence to John. His presence in John's life is a supportive, helpful influence. He provides John with helpful support and a sense of foundation, stability and settled-ness. Paul also will appreciate John's ideas and direction. John brings new ideas, fresh perspectives, new information, a broadening of experience and important direction for their work together and for Paul's life in some way. Whether they are aware of it or not, John is the so-called 'leader' of this relationship. That is the nature of being the Sun Card in a Sun/Moon relationship.

Keep in mind however, that this connection only supports partners or friends and associates who are willing to play the Sun and Moon roles. Some Sun/Moon relationships have ended or had a lot of difficulty because one or both of the partners was unwilling or unable to play the role dictated by this connection. What this means for this relationship is that if Paul is not willing to be the helpful, supportive, and encouraging person in this relationship, or if he is unwilling to take the back seat to John in key situations, this relationship may not last or will experience a lot of friction. Likewise, if John is unwilling to provide leadership, perhaps because he doesn't have any clear direction for his life, then the same result is likely. Keep these important roles in mind because they will be the overall determination of whether or not this relationship is a success. Sometimes the person who is the Sun person may not be the leader type. Other times the person who is the Moon card is the leader type of personality. In either of these cases, it might be difficult for the two to work together harmoniously.

John

However, when two people become involved with this connection they are usually willing to play these roles. On a basic energy level, the roles are demanded of them. When Paul and John are harmonizing themselves with these roles, much success and satisfaction is the result. This is an association that could that could bring both of them many rewards.

Affirmation for Paul: I am very grateful for John's presence in my life. He is a breath of fresh air that is always bringing me new and wonderful ideas, suggestions and directions for enhancing our work experience. I appreciate our great communication and enjoy providing support and help to John. The exchange of energy between us is very satisfying.

Affirmation for John: I am grateful for the presence of Paul in my life. I feel that I have found a perfect companion or co-worker that supports me in the directions that I feel are important in my work and life. I appreciate all the helpful things that he does for me and our easy and natural communications. I enjoy sharing my perspectives and providing direction for our association.

The Second Connection Between You

John

Paul

Connections beyond the first decrease in strength and significance. Therefore, the second will be the next in importance, the third connection next, etc. But each new connection is slightly less significant than the one before it. Keep this in mind as you read the meanings.

John is the Mars Card to Paul

Location: Spiritual Spread

This is one of those 'instant recognition' connections where the parties sense that they know each other the first time they meet. This particular connection is that of the planet Mars, the God of lust and war. The undertone of this connection will be action, energy, competition, passion and aggressiveness. Martian energy is powerful and must be handled with awareness.

In particular, John is a strong stimulant to Paul. He will either excite him into action of some sort, make him angry, or both. Martian energy is power that must be managed and handled consciously if it is to create positive results in our lives. Therefore, Paul will have a great responsibility to channel this energy into positive activities. Some activities that are good for the positive expression of Martian energy are hiking, jogging, riding bicycles, or working out. Working together in a business is one of the best activities of all. But because of the strength of Mars energy, there are certain things that both John and Paul should be aware of.

Mars energy can easily turn into competition, anger, blame, resentment and in extreme cases, abuse. This occurs when there is no positive outlet for the energy of this connection. By having common goals and lots of things to do, as part of the relationship, this tendency will be lessened greatly. It would always be better for these two if they are not directly competing with each other in work, or if that competition is of a healthy kind, such as a race to see who can make the most sales.

Paul, in this relationship, bears the greater responsibility for the success of this partnership. He is the one most affected by the Mars energy, the one who is receiving it. Thus, Paul will be the first to get angry or the first to misconstrue the actions or words of John as being harsh or competitive in nature. If Paul can be aware of this dynamic, he can stop any angry reactions and thus avoid conflict. Paul may not even be aware that he is doing something that is irritating to John. This is usually the case. This Martian energy is directional in this connection and the burden is on Paul. If other connections imply the opposite then there will be an equal burden of responsibility for angry outbursts or hostility.

John

In conclusion, this relationship provides a powerful stimulus for both partners, even though Paul may be affected a little more since he is the one receiving most of the Mars energy. If John and Paul take this energy and put it to work they can benefit from the constructive activities it inspires. They probably were attracted to each other because on some level they wanted to get their lives going in a positive direction. With so much energy at their disposal, there is much they can accomplish, as long as they keep it well-managed and directed.

Affirmation for John: I am aware of how much I stimulate Paul and understand his feelings. With this awareness I consciously guide my actions and help us both by encouraging positive outlets for this powerful energy we share.

Affirmation for Paul: I accept John as a powerful stimulus in my life and choose to take responsibility for my own emotional reactions to him. With his help, I am diffusing my own anger and channeling my energy into positive directions.

The Third Connection Between You

John

Paul

Connections beyond the first decrease in strength and significance. Therefore, the second will be the next in importance, the third connection next, etc. But each new connection is slightly less significant than the one before it. Keep this in mind as you read the meanings.

Paul is the Saturn Card to John

Location: Spiritual Spread

This connection that is very constructive and helpful in any business relationship. It is also one of the 'instant recognition' aspects, which adds an element to the compatibility of Paul and John that is unique. They will feel some familiarity when they first meet and this will add some enjoyment to their working together. In astrology, Saturn governs the areas of career and reputation. It is also called the planet of bad karma. Saturn is usually associated with hardship, restriction, losses and difficulties of all kinds. However, a Spiritual Spread Saturn connection does not usually have the negative expressions of Saturn.

In this relationship John is the one receiving the Saturn influence from his. Normally, this would cause Paul to become very critical of John, constantly finding fault with what he is doing. But in this connection, from the Spiritual Spread, Paul is more likely to be an encouraging influence to John. Paul will probably not be critical in any way, except to offer advice if John asks for it. And that likely will be the case. In this relationship, John will probably see things in Paul that he wants to emulate or attain for himself. So, it could be very likely that he would ask Paul for advice or suggestions, or that their association would be such that Paul's giving these to John would happen on a regular basis, and without any resentment from John's side. Thus, this connection could be very helpful without the friction that occurs with Saturn connections in the Life Spread.

Paul may feel, on some level, an obligation to offer support and constructive advice to John. But he will not feel compelled to give it so much as to make himself available should John require it. Just Paul's presence in proximity to John will give him some inspiration to do a better job or to set higher goals in work related areas. Paul could become a role model for John without even trying, or without knowing it. Both parties will sense that there is something good, constructive, and 'right' about their working together. The last part is that indefinable element of this connection. There is something, on the subconscious level, that makes both Paul and John feel as though they are supposed to be interacting in this capacity. This does not mean that they feel that they should be together forever by any means. But they probably feel that their working association is very appropriate and important, and for reasons that they just cannot put their fingers on. It just feels as though it was meant to be.

John

So, this connection will add a lot to their association, but particularly to John and his ability to make constructive changes that will enhance his success and reputation. Both will enjoy the exchange, however, so it really does benefit all concerned.

Affirmation for Paul: I understand that I have the ability to see ways of improving John's performance and overall success and I share suggestions with him with the awareness that I have a powerful effect on him. I am honored to be his role model and teacher at this time in his life.

Affirmation for John: I realize that I chose this relationship with Paul to help me grow in important areas of my life. With that in mind, I accept his suggestions and example so that I may learn and make progress in becoming a more successful and well-regarded business person.

The Fourth Connection Between You

John

Paul

Connections beyond the first decrease in strength and significance. Therefore, the second will be the next in importance, the third connection next, etc. But each new connection is slightly less significant than the one before it. Keep this in mind as you read the meanings.

John is the Neptune Card to Paul

Location: Spiritual Spread

This is the strongest psychic connection that two people can have. It can make it so that two people can read each other's minds or know what they are doing when they are not together. Of course, these tendencies will not usually manifest between two people that are simply casual business or work associates. But if they also become friends, they could start seeing this phenomena show up between them. However, even in casual association, John and Paul will feel a sort of familiarity that will be hard to explain.

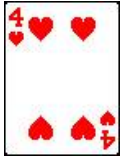

What is interesting is that neither John or Paul may have any interest in spiritual matters. But in relating to each other, they will feel like they are dealing with unseen forces. They may also notice that their association has a lot of idealism and/or fantasy involved in it. This would be especially true if this connection is one of the first between them. Paul is the primary receiver of this Neptune energy and so he is the one who is more likely to have ideals about John and their working relationship. Indeed, one of the reasons for their being put together, on a deeper level, may be for Paul to learn the difference between dreams and reality. We all have some unfulfilled soul-level dreams that are strongly stimulated when we meet someone who is our Neptune Card. It is through these relationships that we get a chance to experience the pros and cons of these kinds of energies and just how our dreams and ideals work themselves out in this material world.

For this reason, this connection could add a very positive element to this relationship or it could be the cause of a lot of confusion and disappointment. If Paul projects many of his ideals or unfulfilled desires onto John, John could feel as though Paul does not know the real him, only his projections. This could make John tire of this relationship as he is not being seen and accepted for who he is really is. Or, he could use the fact that Paul is somewhat deceiving himself to take advantage of his weakness and go along with the deception in order to get things from Paul that he wants. These are some of the more common, negative expressions of the Neptune connection.

Report by

The Fourth Connection Between You

John

Paul

This connection does not really do much for a business association, unless it is a one on one partnership. Two people have to be somewhat close for these qualities to show up. The positive expression of this connection in a business partnership would be that Paul would tend to see John in his highest light. This would cause John to be inspired and try to be the person that Paul sees him as. From Paul's point of view, he would feel as though he were working with the ideal partner in some respects. In this way, both would benefit from the association.

Affirmation for John: I am aware of the psychic link I have with Paul as well as his tendency to ideal me and my work. I consciously direct our activities together in positive directions. I realize that I may not be all of what he thinks I am, but I am encouraged by his seeing the highest in me. He inspires me to reach my full potential and for this I am grateful.

Affirmation for Paul: John reveals to me my deepest ideals and desires for a good working relationship, and in many ways he fulfills them. I use his influence to inspire me to do my best and to reach my fullest potential. I am grateful for John's presence in my life.

The Fifth Connection Between You

John

Paul

Connections beyond the first decrease in strength and significance. Therefore, the second will be the next in importance, the third connection next, etc. But each new connection is slightly less significant than the one before it. Keep this in mind as you read the meanings.

John and Paul are Saturn to each other

Location: Life Spread

This is a very rare connection, found in less than 1% of the population. In addition, this connection is a mutual connection where both John and Paul give and receive Saturn energy. Because of the uniqueness of this connection, we know that John and Paul were in a very interesting and unique situation to have ended up working together. Saturn is a planet that can bring us some of the highest rewards that life has to offer - popularity, good reputation, a role to play that fits us perfectly, and eventual high success in our chosen occupation. Saturn is the most constructive of the connections that exists. Because John and Paul have somehow ended up together, it's as if they are asking for more of these rewards to manifest in their lives. But Saturn is also the teacher and stern disciplinarian. Whether they like it or not, and whether they realize it or not, this association could be one of their greatest teachers. Each of them has lessons to learn by being together and lessons to teach the other. And there will be this mutual exchange throughout their time spent together.

Saturn lessons have a reputation for being difficult, but that is only the case when we are being unconscious about what we are doing, or trying to shirk our responsibilities. Wisdom teaches us that all things come to us through patience and discipline - two of Saturn's keywords. Just in being together, John and Paul will be learning much about patience, self-discipline, responsibility, effective communications, and what it takes to become more successful in the eyes of the world. The net result of being together will be more awareness of these qualities and the development of these qualities in each of them. This could be a very constructive relationship that propels them both ahead much farther in terms of their careers or roles in the world.

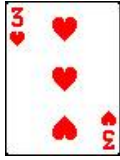

However, if either John or Paul harbors some weakness in one or more of these areas, and they haven't yet resolved it for themselves, this relationship could end up being like pouring salt on an old wound. With so much Saturn energy between them, it is certain that they will have a high awareness of how they are doing in terms of their success, as well as being keenly aware of the things within them that are holding back their success. If, for example, Paul had some doubts about his abilities, then being with John would only serve to remind his of that, or vice versa. Paul may not have ever even noticed that he had so many self-doubts before, and all of a sudden, that is all that he thinks about after associating with John. He could even believe that John is somehow responsible for his self-doubt and begin to blame him. Even though it is actually his self-doubt, it may appear to his that John caused it. This example illustrates how easily a relationship with strong Saturn energy could turn into a negative situation. John and Paul must have a lot of self-awareness to handle this sort of connection because Saturn will not stand for any illusions to be present in the association.

John

This connection can take away from the friendship aspects of any pair and divert most of the energy into constructive and practical matters. This would especially be true if this connection is one of the first three found between them. But regardless of where it is found, this connection guarantees that John and Paul will learn a lot by being together. Regardless of how each of them handles this energy, they will ultimately benefit from having been together.

Affirmation for John: I understand that Paul and I have a powerful effect on each other and can each see the other's faults and shortcomings. With that in mind, I share my suggestions with his with compassion and understanding. Likewise, I realize that his suggestions for me are only meant to better my life.

Affirmation for Paul: I realize that I chose this relationship with John to help me grow in important areas of my life. With that in mind, I accept his suggestions so that I may learn and make progress in becoming a successful and happy person. I also am able to be John's teacher and share my suggestions for him with awareness and compassion.

The Sixth Connection Between You

John

Paul

Connections beyond the first decrease in strength and significance. Therefore, the second will be the next in importance, the third connection next, etc. But each new connection is slightly less significant than the one before it. Keep this in mind as you read the meanings.

Paul is the Uranus Card to John

Location: Life Spread

This connection is not one that is generally suggested for any sort of business relationship. The main reason for this is that any person who plays the role of Uranus in our life is someone who seems, from our point of view, to be completely unreliable. In business situations, success often depends upon agreements and reliability. Thus, this connection is not recommended from a practical point of view.

However, there are times when two people with a strong Uranus connection get partnered up by circumstances or things beyond their control. If this is the case, a thorough understanding of this connection can help alleviate the potential stress and miscommunications it can cause.

In this particular case, it is Paul who plays the Uranus role to John, not vice versa. Thus, it will be John who will be experiencing the unpredictable-ness and lack of reliability from Paul. This will not be because Paul is intentionally trying to upset the apple cart. He may try his hardest to be on time and to make good on promises and show up at important meetings, etc. But try as he may, Paul will still tend to show up sporadically and unreliably from John's point of view. This is because the energy of the connection tends to destroy structures of all kinds. If John is forced to have to work with Paul, he will have to understand that Paul's behavior is not intentional. At least this will keep John from feeling that it is some sort of personal attack or affront. It is just the nature of the energy of Uranus.

Usually when we are put into a situation where we must contend with a Uranus person in our life, this is because we have a need, on some level, to break down our attachments to structure, forms, routines and other habitual behaviors. This may be the case for John since Paul plays this role for him.

Also, Paul will rebel against any attempts by John to control him or to make him conform. The more John tries to control Paul, the more Paul will feel the need to do just the opposite. This could be an infuriating situation for John if his role in the association is to teach or lead Paul.

The Sixth Connection Between You

John

Paul

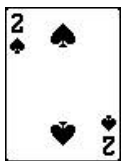

If John can first learn that this is not personal and secondly see how it may be in his best interest to loosen up a bit, the influence of Paul may seem like a good thing. So, the responsibility of how this connection will affect their working relationship is entirely upon John's shoulders.

The other strong effect of this connection is that of friendship. If the aforementioned requirements are met by John, this association could turn into a genuine friendship which could in turn bring more ease and success to all of their undertakings.

Affirmation for Paul: I realize the powerful effect I have on John. I see the potential for us to have a harmonious and friendly association. We could even become friends.
